California then would have an undisputed claim to the title. In the event of the Southrons defeating California and the latter losing to Washington, the southerners at least would have the satisfaction of disputing the title with Washington. In the north, Georgia occupies the same relative position.

Under the circumstances all four teams have their strongest line ups in the #12. The University of Washington appreciating what is at stake, and in order to take no chances, has taken two full teams to Spokane. Washington is

COLLEGE BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO MEET

Secretary Gerald Beaumont of the Intercollegiate Basketball league of California and Nevada announces that the annual meeting of that organization will be held in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, to which the evening of Ed-will be elected, and the spring schedule arranged. California will probably cling to the freshman rule in this line of sport, also, but any difficulty is expected to be obviated by the fact that Stanford has a veteran club in the field, and the same is true of most of the other members.

MILLS STUDENTS SCORE SUCCESS

Hauptmann's "The Sunken Bell" Presented in Open-Air Production.

Students of Mills college scored a decided success last night in one of the first remarkable open-air productions ever staged at the college, when the girls presented "The Sunken Bell," a dramatic play, written by Hauptmann, the dramatist, in the Hauptmann drama, and a large number of students appeared in a cast of figures and other characters of his drama.

Others of the amateur thespians included Miss Frances Merry as Hauptmann, Katherine Scudder as Old Wither, Viola Wether as Magda and Helen List as Helimann.

The story dealt with a dreamer who, following fancies and dreams, was untrue to the wife who loved him. Hermann, the dreamer, is finally recalled from his chase after spirits by the death of his wife, Magda. A large crowd saw the play, which was given in the new open air amphitheater of the college.

HAS GUEST ARRESTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Alexander Darak, a clerk was arrested for grand larceny this morning after a search of jewelry belonging to V. Marcham, a salesman, had been found concealed in his bed at 1543 Fulton street. He communicated with the police and after Patrolman Hallisey had

Woman and Beast Battle for Baby

Mother Routs Cougar With Iron Pipe

By Associated Press.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 23.—By giving battle with a piece of iron pipe to a cougar which had attacked her, Mrs. E. Burckhard yesterday saved her babe's life and her own near Tabolah, thirty miles from here, according to word received by her parents here today.

Mrs. Burckhard was walking along a mountain trail toward a place where her husband was at work, carrying her babe, when she came across a cougar pursuing a fox. As Mrs. Burckhard approached, the cougar abandoned its chase and made toward her. Seizing a piece of pipe beside the trail, the woman faced the infuriated animal as it plunged, tearing away part of her gown.

During the struggle, the cougar ripped the woman's clothing to ribbons. The babe clung tightly to her neck, but she managed to wield her weapon to such effect that the cougar was finally put to flight.

When Mrs. Burckhard arrived at home she was in hysterics.

BETHANY HALL SERVICES.

Regular Sunday services will be held tomorrow at Bethany hall, Nineteenth street and Twenty-third avenue. The public is invited.

SPOUSE PLEADS TO COURT FOR WIFE

"Dearer Than My Soul," Oakland Contractor Declares.

"I love my wife better than my soul. I do not want to see her go to the penitentiary," declared Otto L. Beckwith, Oakland contractor, when, as chief prosecuting attorney against his wife, accused of slaying her husband, he pleaded for her freedom in the San Joaquin County Superior Court at Stockton.

Beckwith, a nervous wreck as the result of the ordeal of this trial and the former trial of Woodson, who she attended, declared that her husband was the cause of her father's death and that home with him was unendurable. She declared that the man was responsible for the death of her father, who came to California a few years ago with $15,000, and that he had abused the other members of her family since.

"I am a farmer's daughter, and we are not a lot of people that get into trouble," she declared.

WIFE IN TEARS.

During the preliminary portions of the trial the woman remained at the attorney's table, her face buried in her mother's lap. On the stand she somewhat recovered her composure. She made one damaging statement to her own case in admitting that she and Woodson had been too friendly.

The woman and Woodson are accused of having eloped to a ranch near Lodi in Oakland, attempted to swear a warrant against Beckwith, and then fled. Beckwith, whose home is in Oakland, attempted to swear a warrant against Beckwith, and then fled. Beckwith, whose home is in Oakland, attempted to swear a warrant against Beckwith, and then fled.

PARALYTIC GUILTY OF MURDERING HIS WIFE

Fred T. West, who shot and killed his wife Nellie Mae West, following a quarrel in which he accused her of associating with other men, was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the extra sessions department of the Superior Court last night. Judge Stanley Smith, who was on the bench in the hearing, will impose sentence Monday morning.

West attempted suicide after he had shot his wife in front of her home at Third and Harrison streets, sending a bullet through her brain. He is a paralytic as a result of the suicide attempt, and presented a pitiful spectacle in court. His four children and his aged mother kept him company throughout the trial.

Rita, his 16-year-old daughter, is working in a local store, and is supporting her three brothers and sisters.

WABASH CHAPTER FILED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—A charter for a new Wabash Railroad Company, the purpose of which is to take over all the Wabash Railroad property now in the hands of receivers, has been filed with the secretary of state here. The capital of the new company was $140,000.

is accepting the message she brings. And it is a big message that is given to the women who assemble on Monday mornings in Mrs. Walker's beautiful home at Piedmont. Many of them have notebooks and pencils, and the hour is a study hour in every sense of the word.

One learns tolerance of things; one tries to see the big thought back of things one does not at first understand. One's eyes are opened; one is no longer provincial—bestowing ridicule instead of earnest effort to learn.

And so the work of the impressionist no longer strikes one with a blow as if something overdrawn. One sees with the artist. He saw first the vivid colors of the world around him and he painted them on this canvas for us to see them, too. And the prophet who has come among us is gentle, sweet Mrs. Ford, with her fine understanding and her ability to translate pictures into word pictures of her own.

So great has been the success of the lectures at Mrs. Walker's home in Piedmont that Berkeley has followed Piedmont's example, and this same series of lectures will be given at the home of Dr. Woodson Allen on Webster street, Berkeley.

Mrs. Ford has chosen for the subject of her last lecture at Mrs. Walker's home "The Future of Art of Italy." No lectures are more needed, for very few people on this coast understand what is meant by the Futurist Art of today. Among the well-known women who have aided in making the Piedmont lectures so great a success are:

Mrs. Victor Metcalf, Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Mrs. Mark L. Requa, Mrs. Myratt, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown, Mrs. C. B. Wingate, Mrs. Harry Farr, Miss Matilda Brown, Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith, Mrs. Brougher, Mrs. Clinton Walker, Miss Allison Stone, Mrs. Granville Abbott, Miss Mona Crellin, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. P. H. Dunn, Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mrs. Leon Boquerias, Mrs. Sam Bell Wakefield, Mrs. Frederick Cutting, Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Leon Clark, Mrs. A. D. Thomson, Mrs. Frank K. Mott.

The Exposition has also brought to the foreground Madame Ali Kuli Khan, whose sweet personality is winning for her many friends not only in Piedmont, where her home is, but all around the bay. Madame Khan has always been considered one of the most brilliant women in the diplomatic corps at Washington, and certainly she has done much to direct the movements of her most unconventional daughter, Alice Roosevelt, now Mrs. Longworth.

President Taft was always much more popular than his wife or daughter, for neither of them was gifted with any great amount of tact. The Wilson daughters are finely educated, and they are close to the people, and Mrs. McAdoo certainly represents culture, and something that is perhaps better—the charm which "every woman knows."

HERE'S NEWS OF AUTUMN STYLES. Now that we are in the mid-October days, the styles are well determined, and it is interesting to meet one's friends, and to see what they have evolved from the many new ideas presented for their consideration. It is interesting to note the names given to costumes this season. In the smart sets, homes are all named now, even to most men of big affairs, especially in these important days, and men join in social activities with a good deal of reluctance. But Mrs. McAdoo has spontaneity and enthusiasm enough for both herself and her husband, and she enjoys thoroughly the social life of which she finds herself a part. She is not beautiful, but she is very attractive, which is sometimes much better, and she has a frank, winning smile, when she is pleased, which lights up her face and makes her charming. And she has very good manners, as have all the daughters of President Wilson.

Three daughters of presidents have been here recently—Mrs. Nicholas though some of them are very small homes indeed. Yachts are named also, and tiny launches carry sometimes a very high-sounding name. The foreign nations pay a compliment to England, and from Paris comes the announcement that Worth calls his best evening frock "Lord Byron." Birelli calls a suit "Cobba." George calls one "Greenaway." Bernard calls a frock "Gainsborough," and a suit "Tommy." These few show the way the wind blith.

At two large dances of last week, there were many beautiful gowns in evidence, at the Crocker dance at Burlingame, and at the Baby Hospital dance in our auditorium. It is evident that this season, dancing gowns are to be very short and the skirts very none have been more genuinely liked than the Hermann Gades. They lived at Burlingame last summer, occupying the home of the William Bull Pringles.

The Gades gave an elaborate dinner this week for a hundred guests, and Mrs. Gade was a charming study in a most beautiful evening gown of orchid colored chiffon velvet, the skirt most elaborately trimmed in bands of brown fur.

SOCIETY AND GOWNS

AT HOSPITAL BALL. The Baby Hospital Ball represented a large and important social function, and one hears that the splendid sum of five thousand dollars rewarded the efforts of the young matrons who worked so hard.

Mrs. Duncan McDuffie is one of the most stunning of the young matrons on this side of the bay, and she was very handsome indeed as she presided at the ball. Many elaborate gowns were worn and many prominent women, mostly from our side of the bay, were in attendance.

Mrs. Edward Walsh is always beautifully gowned, and her New York costume at the ball was greatly admired.

Mrs. E. A. Heron is one of the dearest aunts in the world, and her nieces are indeed fortunate girls. Miss Elinor Parker of Chicago has been with her aunt, Mrs. Heron, so much that one regards that charming young girl as a member of our own smart set.

An honored guest at the dance was Miss Daisy Polk, who was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. McDuffie. Miss Polk lived for many years abroad, and at the outbreak of the big war she went to London, where, with Mrs. Hoover, she did wonderful things for the stranded Americans and for the young American girls at the schools abroad. Honors always go at any dance to beautiful Mrs. Herbert Brown (Florence Sharon), and she chaperoned Miss Phyllis Lovell, one of the very dainty and very pretty girls of the younger set.

Mrs. Robert Sharon was also one of Mrs. Brown's guests, and she was very charming indeed in her wedding gown of white satin.

Another very beautiful young matron was Mrs. J. D. Grissim, who was formerly Miss Irene Baker. Dr. and Mrs. Grissim have a most attractive home in Oakland, and they gave a dinner to a party of friends at their home, afterwards entertaining them at the Baby Hospital Ball.

Mrs. Grissim is petite, a lovely type of brunette, with most beautiful eyes. She has a wonderful voice and keeps up the traditions of the Baker family, who are all clever, who are all musical and who represent one of the old-time and very popular families of Oakland.

Mrs. Challen Parker (Noelle de Golia) was among the most striking of the younger matrons, as Mrs. Philip Bliss was also very attractive.

Among the prettiest of the young girls were Miss Pussy Creed and Miss Marjorie Mhoon, and Miss Natalie Fore was also most attractive, as are all the daughters of the Fore family.

Two of the most beautifully gowned matrons at the ball were Mrs. Precival Walker and Mrs. Wickham Havens, and another very handsome gown was that worn by Mrs. William Creed.

And apropos of dances, one reads among the smart set notes of an Eastern paper:

"There are sure to be some new dances this year. At the Panama-Pacific Exposition the three-step has been a favorite, and the glide waltz is said to be coming back into its own. The tango still holds in favor."

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

Mrs. Philip Bliss and Mrs. George Dougherty are two of the handsome and popular young matrons of society. Many are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Painter of Alameda, and as Miss Janet and Miss Pauline Painter were belles of society on both sides of the bay. Since her marriage last spring Mrs. Dougherty has made her home in San Jose, where they have a charming home. Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty are frequent visitors to Alameda and Oakland.

BEHIND THE SCENES WITH DEBUTANTES.

The debutante coming out is a settled fashion of each season, and already dates are being arranged for the coming winter, so that receptions will not conflict with each other. At nearly all the receptions there is dancing, so that they occupy the afternoon and early part of the evening. One is rather sorry for the debutante of today, so much is expected of her. For it takes a long and gradual process for the formal coming out, and the future depends entirely upon the girl herself. No matter how loud are the plaudits of her fond relatives, she must "make good," or else step down from the glare of the social limelight to make

ANY social dates are scheduled for the closing days of the Exposition, and the next few weeks will be busy ones for members of the art sets around the bay. Foremost the social limelight will be "Woman's Board Day," tendered the women of the State of California by the Board of Directors of the Exposition.

The Woman's Board, its stockholders and auxiliary members tender a breakfast to the honorary membership, consisting of the honorary president, the honorary vice-presidents and honorary members at 12 o'clock in the ballroom of the California building.

The guests of honor will be Mrs. Joebe Hearst, Mrs. Frederick Sanborn, Mrs. I. Lowenberg, Mrs. William Hineley Taylor, Mrs. John F. Merrill, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. Ernest S. Simpson. And from Alameda county the honorary members who will be the guests of honor will be Mrs. Isaac L. Requa, Mrs. John Swift, Mrs. Charles E. Lloyd and Mrs. Mollie E. Connors.

The privilege of subscribing for one seat is accorded each auxiliary member, so the breakfast in the beautiful ballroom promises to be a very brilliant affair. At half after ten exercises will be held in the Court of Abundance, and there will be a presentation of a testimonial of appreciation by President Moore, representing the Exposition directors.

At 9 o'clock in the evening there will be a reception and ball in the California building. In the receiving line will be Mrs. A. C. Posey, the county chairman of Alameda county. He has been one of the most successful chairmen in the state and one of the best loved. Auxiliary members siding out of San Francisco who desire to remain at the Exposition and eat and dress for the evening are invited to use the rooms of the Woman's Board for this purpose. And substantial supper will be served in the auxiliary tea room at 7 o'clock. The women of California are specially invited to come to the Exposition on Woman's Board Day.

It is hoped that in the Court of Ages one of the addresses of the afternoon will be made by Mrs. Wallace Alexander of Piedmont, who has been such an able president of the Travelers' Aid Work. It is amazing to read the report of the work, in which one finds that 102,611 persons have been assisted from January 1 to October 1.

On Monday, November 1, the Woman's Board proposes giving a luncheon and reception in honor of Lady Aberdeen, whose real title is Marchioness of Aberdeen and Temair. It will be one of the most important luncheons of Exposition days, and attended by many of the representative women around the bay. The Woman's Board has entertained at dinner during the past month Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, Governor Alexander of Idaho, Governor Lister of Washington, Governor Mills of Ohio, the minister from the Netherlands, Chevalier van C. Rapard, and the minister from China, Mr. Fu Shih.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN TESTS OF BOARD.

A very beautiful phase of the work of the Woman's Board is represented by the four teas, which is giving in the California building. It is entertaining the women and children of San Francisco, in whom the Associated Charities of San Francisco, the Catholic Humane Bureau and the Hebrew Benevolent Association are interested. The mothers constitute "The Mothers Congress."

More than 500 were entertained on the first of the four days selected for this purpose and 1400 the second day. These mothers and their little ones had an opportunity of visiting the Exposition. Probably no hospitality work up to this date has been more thoroughly appreciated, and certainly none has given the members of the Woman's Board so much pleasure.

LADY ABERDEEN.

On Friday evening, November 5, in the K. W. C. A. building will occur one of the great events in the history of that organization. Lady Aberdeen, Marchioness of Aberdeen and Temair, will be the guest of honor at a reception given to the board and members, whom there are about 3500. She is the international president of the Council of Women and has done much for the cause of humanity the world over. She and her husband have

CARRANZA MAY END WARFARE ON BORDER

CONFERENCE TO ACT ON RAIDS

Arredondo Departs After Delivering First Chief's Message to U. S.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—General Carranza, through his representative here, Eliseo Arredondo, addressed a note today to the United States and the other American Republics which have recognized his government, expressing his appreciation of their action, and announcing that diplomatic representatives soon will be accredited to the various countries.

State Department officials admitted bearing a rumor from Juarez, attributed to Villa officials, that Felix Diaz and 40,000 Zapata troops were menacing Mexico City. However, it was said that no such number of Zapata troops had been reported before, and that the Carranza agency had received notice that Diaz had been seen in New York three days ago.

Messages also were received from Mexico City by the Carranza agency, stating that the Zapata forces had disintegrated into small bands, many of them now based General Gonzales for amnesty and that appeals have been received from the people of Morelos for more troops to combat the small guerrilla bands, as the Zapata troops had abandoned all pretense of organization.

ARREDONDO SETS OUT.
Bearing official notification of recognition by the United States and Latin American Republics of the government in Mexico reported by General Venustiano Carranza, Eliseo Arredondo, confidential agent of Carranza, left today for Saltillo, Mexico, to meet his chief, Mexican bandit raids along the border will be one of the subjects taken up by Arredondo with his chief.

A summary of today's dispatches to the State Department follows:
"The department is inclined to think that General Carranza has stated that responsibility for property and lives of foreigners will be assumed throughout the republic."
"It is stated that during the fighting in the north he will not endeavor to call general elections. Municipal elections will be called first and later will come elections for governors of states. It is stated that the so-called pre-constitutional period will last a year, more or less."
"The foreign secretary of the de facto government has informed the representative of the department of State that general railroad service will be re-established as soon as possible."

DARING BURGLAR
MAY BE NOTABLE

Police Suspect International Crook Obtained Billie Burke's Jewels.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—That a professional burglar, skilled and daring, and probably a celebrity in the world of crime from New York or London, was responsible for ransacking the apartment of Miss Billie Burke and other rooms at the St. Francis hotel, was the statement made by Detective Sergeant Wren this morning.

Although the police have worked diligently, they have been unable to determine if the thief entered the rooms by the door or the window. Not a mark nor fingerprint has so far been discovered to give a clue to the man's identity.

House Detective Blake is of the opinion that the burglar operated from the fire escape, but Wren said this morning that he might just as easily slipped in the door with the aid of a passkey or by skillfully picking the lock. While it is possible that the culprit deliberately planned to rob Miss Burke, it is Wren's theory that he chanced on her apartment and the valuable loot which fell into his possession. The total amount of Miss Burke's loss is now placed at approximately $200.

It was recently predicted in New York that some of Europe's cleverest criminals who had found their way there since the war began, would come to San Francisco on account of the exposition, and it is possible that the perpetrator of this crime is one of them.

VISION OF 'DEAD SON' TRUE

Voice 3000 Miles Away Overheard
Mare Island Listens Through Wireless

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 22.—Mare Island "listened in" on the most notable wireless telephone test in history when Arlington Station in the United States, addressed Paris via the Eiffel Tower.

The radio experts at Mare Island heard the message from Arlington perfectly according to a report sent to Washington today, but were not able to hear the reply from Paris, which the Arlington operators received. It is believed that this was principally because of inability to adjust to the correct waves in the local station.

San Diego's wireless station also reports having heard the Arlington conversation in part. This station, too, was unable to pick up the words from Paris. Radio experts declare that this fact definitely sets the limit of the Paris message, until closer adjustments are devised for the apparatus.

CHARGES AGAINST
FIREMEN UNHEARD

Piedmont Trustees, Occupied With Routine, Lack Time to Act.

Routine business occupied the session of the Piedmont board of trustees last night, and the matter of the charges against the firemen was not taken up. The trustees of the Piedmont fire department met last night at the home of Mrs. W. F. Banks to bring these matters before the board. Beyond the passage of bills and hearing of regular reports, no business is considered.

It is declared by members of the council that no action toward any proposed changes in the fire department will be considered before the first of next year when the details of new business of the town will be taken up.

Trustee Lawrence E. Moore, purchasing agent of the board, declared that the letter from District Attorney W. H. L. Barnes, urging regularity in sales of purchases was simply a circular letter sent to all cities of the sixth class, and was not intended as a criticism of Piedmont.

"I realize that it did not mean I had done anything wrong," he said, "but they may be some who misunderstood, so I want this explained. All public officials are more or less victims of misunderstanding."

The complaint in regard to the Mills fire, in which a woman was burned, it is declared by members of the board, will probably never be considered by that body. The house, according to Mrs. Mills, was burned by a fire which started when permitted by former fire chief Parker. Banks denies that his department exhibited cowardice.

Socialists Opposed to Exclusion of Tramps

By Associated Press.
SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 22.—Schemes to stop tramps or unemployed men at the state line or boundaries of counties will be strongly opposed by the Socialist party, according to A. Richardson, Socialist candidate for governor in the last election.

Richardson declared that many of the men trekking toward California are capable laboring men seeking employment, and in any event tramps had a right to travel.

Organized labor, Richardson said, would be asked to join in an appeal to Governor Johnson to halt plans to bar the so-called "casual workers" from the state.

Canada Seeks Service of War Prisoners

By Associated Press.
OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—Application for the services of the 6000 war prisoners held in Canada has been made to the Dominion government by New Brunswick lumber men. Labor is scarce in Canada, and lumbermen claim that they cannot get men for the woods. The application has not been dealt with by the government.

OAKLANDER
VERY MUCH ALIVE

Woman Refuses to Believe Her Child Is Portland Suicide; "Quite Well" He Wires.

A dream that her son was alive and safe despite the report of his suicide came true last night when Mrs. E. C. Chick, 500 Fourteenth street, received word that her son, Lloyd Chick, reported to have hanged himself at Portland, was alive. "The case is one of the queerest instances of mistaken identity seen on the coast in years. Chick's fiancée and half a dozen friends had identified the body of the dead man as that of the Oakland theatrical promoter. Identification seemed certain and his mother and sister in Oakland were notified and left for the north.

LOOKS AT SUPPOSED SELF.
Mrs. Chick steadfastly refused to believe her son dead, according to her friends, declaring that she knew "her heart" that there was a mistake. In the meantime Chick, very much alive, walked into the coroner's office to take a look at the body of his supposed self.

Most decidedly alive and quite well, "thank you," he telephoned his Oakland friends, after satisfying the Portland authorities that he is no corpse. Who the dead man is he has no idea. The likeness, however, is remarkable.

IDENTIFIED BY SWEETHEART.
The body was first identified by Mrs. Eva Mayberry of Portland after it had been found hanging in a public comfort station in a downtown building. Friends of the supposed dead man testified that he had been promoting concessions in fairs and had met financial reverses. Chick's sweetheart also identified the body as that of the Oakland man.

Chick last night called up the girl, announcing that he and not his ghost would be around to see her in a short time. He then wired his relatives and friends.

The Chick family declare that they do not know the Mrs. Mayberry who had been found hanging in the public comfort station. The Portland authorities are investigating into the death of the man supposed to be "Chick."

HORST ARSON
PLOT VEILED IN MYSTERY

Sheriff Baffled by Clew Given to Officers by Japanese Foreman.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—Sheriff William Gormley and deputies today are trying to find the arson gang which started four separate fires on the ranch of the E. Clement Horst Company, a few miles east of this city, at midnight Thursday, in an effort to destroy the entire plant.

CLEW PUZZLES OFFICERS.
Nakoka, a Japanese and boss of half a dozen other Japanese who have the contract of baling the hops, has given the officers a clew that is puzzling them. Nakoka says that he was aroused from his sleep in his cabin on the ranch by some one tearing a small board off the window sill of the cabin and throwing it through the window into the cabin. Nakoka seized a gun and ran out but could see nobody. He made a tour of the ranch and had just returned to the cabin when the first fire broke out.

The ranch has been patrolled nightly by a Japanese night watchman, who was taken off Thursday. The officers believe the Japanese waited for this opportunity to set the fires.

Nakoka believes the stick was thrown into his room to give him warning so that he would not be burned should the fire spread to his cabin.

SUSPICION AROUSED.
Ten days ago the Japanese night watchman stopped a man who was approaching one of the hills on the ranch and asked him to go on his way to see his sweetheart and the Japanese ordered him off the place.

Positive evidence that the fires were of incendiary origin was found by the sheriff's deputies in pieces of burlap and sackcloth that had been saturated with coal oil. Oil had also been thrown on some of the bales of hops. No trace of the arsonists has yet been found.

Gibson Cocktail May Soon Be But Memory

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Is the Gibson cocktail doomed?
What is to become of that 60-40 percentage of a certain dry gin and a certain French vermouth when the best bars say that the Gibson is a thing of the past of this special gin and less than that of this particular vermouth?

The Gibson is a blend peculiar to San Francisco. Since its introduction along the coast, it has been known to the great divide across the rivers and valleys and in the cavernous canyons of a metropolis just beyond Jersey City.

A shortage here of the ingredients may or may not mean a shortage there in the meantime the honest bars are starting to tell their customers that they are having difficulty getting the especially brands needed.

Murderess' Past Is Revealed
Police Get Word From East

MRS. MARY PAMAS, WHO MURDERED MICHAEL WEINSTEIN, AND WHOSE RECORD IS BEING SOUGHT.

That Mrs. Mary Pamas was known to the police prior to her coming to California and marrying Joseph Pamas and that she was intimate with a man in Atlantic City, were facts revealed in a telegram received today from Chief of Police W. B. Woodruff. Chief Woodruff, who is the head of the Atlantic City department, made a careful investigation of Mrs. Pamas' record there and his wire was dispatched only this morning. It tends to connect several facts told in Mrs. Pamas' original story and reveals the information that her right name was Mary Hurd and that her home was Bridgeport, Conn. The full telegram received by Chief White is as follows:

"Michael Weinstein known here for years. His wife's address is 529 East Washington street, Syracuse, N. Y. Charges Hickman lived with Mary Pamas at 6 Mason's Terrace. Her right name is Mary Hurd, formerly of Bridgeport, Conn. Lee Roberts, a half-brother of Mary Pamas, lives here. No one seems to claim body of Weinstein."

NAME DIFFERS FROM POLICE.
In her first confession Mrs. Pamas asserted that her name was Mary Boettcher. She claimed to have lived in Atlantic City for four years, most of the time in the Weinstein household. She said nothing of Hickman or of the half-brother whom Chief Woodruff mentions.

The police have also received from Mrs. Weinstein, the widow, the following brief message from Syracuse: "Wire full description of Weinstein, man murdered."

From that city also comes a message from Chief of Police M. L. Cadin. "Mrs. Weinstein in poor circumstances. Cannot bury him," it says. The $220 turned over by Weinstein to Mrs. Pamas, according to her story, will be used by Coroner Leland subject to the approval of the public administrator for giving the murdered man proper burial. Meantime and until Mrs. Pamas is tried in the court, it is probable that the remains will be kept at the morgue in the special refrigerator department provided for the purpose.

MRS. PAMAS IN COURT.
Mrs. Pamas has been charged with murder and this morning appeared before Police Judge Brady. Her husband was released from custody last night.

Mrs. Pamas' case was continued until after the coroner's inquest. The receipt of the Atlantic City telegram tends to confirm Mrs. Pamas' second dramatic confession made yesterday in which she declared that she killed Weinstein on Monday because he held letters of hers and threatened to tell her husband of their relations. The message from Chief Woodruff would indicate that Mrs. Pamas was not too careful of her conduct at Atlantic City and the probability was that Weinstein had threatened to expose her past life to her husband. This was undoubtedly the cause of the murder.

HUSBAND NOT IN COURT.
Joseph Pamas, husband of the accused woman, was not in court this morning when she was brought down from the prison. She stated that she did not have him there as she did not know she would have to appear.

"He is out trying to raise money to hire an attorney for me," she asserted.

When questioned regarding the telegram from Atlantic City she denied that she had lived with Charles Hickman as indicated in the dispatch, asserting that Hickman was a lodger in the rooming house kept by her mother. She stated further that she would ask to have Mrs. Weinstein, widow of the murdered man, subpoenaed as a witness in her behalf.

"I intend to have Mrs. Weinstein brought here," said Mrs. Pamas. "She can tell better than anybody of the hold Weinstein had on me and of the relations between us. He knows the whole situation and I am going to do my best to have her testify in my behalf."

Mrs. Pamas sat calmly in stock, gazing curiously over the throng of spectators, who knew not who she was. Her case was called quietly by the clerk and only those in the front row realized that she was the woman who had cut a man to pieces earlier in the week.

The case was continued until October 30.

Mrs. Love, matron at the city prison, notified Lieutenant Tobin, in charge of this morning, that Mrs. Mary Pamas had gone on a hunger strike. She reported that the accused murderess had eaten but a few mouthfuls since she was taken to the prison Wednesday morning. Despite this fact Mrs. Pamas has not seemed to be in a weakened condition and has merely stated that she was not hungry.

Coroner T. E. W. Leland set the inquest in the case of Michael Weinstein for next Thursday morning.

Spreckels Yacht to
Be Fishing Craft

By Associated Press.
SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 22.—The schooner-yacht Halcyon, once the pleasure craft of John D. Spreckels, and later known all over the Pacific as a sealer, fisherman and boat of adventure, has been purchased from the Victoria Sealing Company by Thomas Tjerandsen and Edward Peterson of Seattle, and will be refitted for Mexican coasting service. Her present owners announced today that they would fit her with gasoline engines and make a cargo carrier of her. The Halcyon was built at Benicual, Cal., in 1887, for Mr. Spreckels. After using her as a pleasure craft for several years, she was sold and became a vessel of adventure, finally passing into the sealing trade, where she remained until that industry declined as a result of the laws against pelagic sealing.

Paroled Man Sought;
Swindled, Is Charge

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—S. I. Worden, sentenced to life imprisonment in this state for dynamiting a train in the strike of 1892, in which several soldiers were killed, and who was admitted to parole a few years ago, in the care of a brother in Japan, is now being sought by state officials and if caught he will be brought back and made to serve out his sentence. Worden was to Shanghai, China, where it is alleged he swindled a merchant out of $1500 worth of opium. He is wanted in that city, and also in Japan for an alleged robbery.

If Worden comes to this country, he will be returned to Folsom to serve his prison sentence; if he goes to China he will be tried for felony, and if he goes to Japan he will be tried for robbery.

By Associated Press.
DETROIT, Oct. 22.—"It is probable that as many people are killed in Africa every year as a result of witchcraft as were killed in all the armies of Europe during the first year of the present war," was one of the striking statements made by Dr. J. TYPHOID VACCINATION NOT POPULAR AT U. C.

BERKELEY, Oct. 23. — Progress in the immunization against typhoid by vaccination, which has brought the University of California to the forefront of all parts of the country, is evidently being appreciated at the Berkeley campus. The university has been offering typhoid vaccination to its students for several years. However, the response has been relatively low. They will be providing more information about the benefits of the vaccine and making the process more convenient. The university is committed to the health and safety of its students and is confident that more will get vaccinated in the future.
